Modern European design meets majestic island views at the six-bedroom, six-bathroom Villa Viman. Stone Buddhas mix with Oriental rugs for a subtle Asian aesthetic, while the villa's brushed concrete and stone detailing blend naturally with the raw beauty of Phuket's coastline.

Viman's main hub is its open-plan living room, an airy, sun-drenched space with high vaulted ceilings and glass walls that showcase spectacular views. Adjacent, an amply sized kitchen and dining area allow the whole family to eat together, and come complete with a personal live-in chef who can prepare authentic Thai, Indian and Western food to order.

Viman's generous interiors extend outward, to spacious terraces that invite family barbecues, corporate sundowners, anniversary parties, even weddings - all with the breathtaking Andaman Sea as a backdrop. Edgeless glass railings maximize the villa's incredible panoramas, while an infinity pool and whirlpool bath let you literally soak in the views. For younger guests, Viman is perfectly equipped for a fun-filled holiday. There's a foosball table in the kids' playroom, ping-pong in the games room and a dedicated home theater with flat screen TV, DVD player and sound system. A DVD library offers the classics, or you can use the villa's Wi-Fi to access movies or Netflix.

Viman's six bedrooms are spread over three levels. A king bedroom on the pool level makes an ideal spot for grandparents, while downstairs, the master bedroom and children's room provide direct access to the garden, with a guest bedroom featuring its own private terrace and outdoor tub. There's also a cozy family room on this floor - an informal area with plush sofas and a TV. One floor down, bedrooms five and six can accommodate five more guests between them, sharing a terrace with an outdoor tub.

Viman comes with a live-in chef and housekeeper/butler, plus the comprehensive services of a villa concierge
