This modern pool villa is located only 500 meters from UWC Thailand International School, located in peaceful northern Phuket at the foothills of a beautiful national park, away from the island's city centres, and only a 10-minute drive from Phuket's International Airport, and will perfectly fit to a family willing not to spend too much time on the way to school. For people who want an active holiday destination to rebalance and recharge using sustainable and holistic practices, this villa will fit perfectly, as it is also located near famous Thanyapura Sports & Health Club - an oasis for active people.

The villa itself is very-well thought through. When approaching the villa, pleasantly, the car park is equipped with automatic door. Top-tier materials were used during the construction of this villa. When entering the house, you will step on floor tile that was imported from Italy.

Phuket is known for its hot weather, therefore, aluminium sliding door with tempered glass made by Sun Paradise, will ensure the good air flow within the villa. For a very hot day, the villa is equipped with 3 Japanese air-conditioners - Daikin, that will guarantee clean air and comfortable temperature within the house. Inside doors are soundproof, offering privacy and tranquillity to everyone in the house.

The fully equipped kitchen consists of expensive German appliances made by Hafele. Every appliance is 'Future Ready' and has been carefully designed to provide you with the best cooking experience.
